Perched majestically at the top of a hillside with stunning views to a natural parkland and the Mediterranean sea beyond, emerges the residential development of Casablanca Luxury Villas in a pocket of natural beauty on the Costa del Sol. With almost 50 acres of protected woodland rising above sea level, in perfect harmony with the natural surroundings.

Each Luxury Villa at Casablanca is superbly appointed. Pure comfort, style and space blend uniquely to create a new concept in living. With our superior commitment to excellence your new home epitomizes exceptional standards and unparalleled quality, with every detail flawlessly perfected. From a comprehensive range, your home is tailored made to your desires.

Large villas of approximately 400 sq. meters, with private gardens and pools. Each villa is on three floors with suspended staircase and private lift. Among the facilities within each villa and in the gated residential development, the residents are also exclusive members of the splendid Social Club. Located on one of the most privileged hillsides on the Costa del Sol, only halfway between the village of Benalmádena and the coast.
